RYLA Students

Both Trent and Hayden enjoyed the Rotary Youth Leadership Academy weekend in the Wisconsin Dells.

The leadership training started on the Friday night when they were assembled into teams and had to navigate an obstacle course.

In the evening they enjoyed Famous Dave's and had a campfire.

On Saturday they hiked to Sunset Rock and went through a ropes-course. The day also entailed an exercise in ethics with teams having to deal with an issue of whether to tell a coach that your best friend broke the rules and was drinking which would result in you getting the starting position. They found this very difficult but enlightening.

As a service project they sorted donated books to determine age appropriateness for backpacks for children that are going through a traumatic situation.

They both felt that they learned and grew as leaders through the experience and would recommend it for others.

They are both interested in looking into establishing an Interact group.

Trent Waltenberg (Nekoosa) and Hayden Beck (John Edwards)
