Rotary News

- We had 24 people on the Zoom meeting and welcomed youth Rotars Rebecca Black and Rachel Marten
- We unfortunately say farewell to Chris Ashbeck who has left the club
- Penny reported that the Community Outdoor Learning Center continues to progress with another kitchen play area and a carport over the art area. The music and art areas are used every day and are perfect for these COVID times
- John Moffat won the Packer Pool for the second week in a row
- Penny Antell, principal of Mead Elementary and sponsored by MaryJo Greene was inducted as the newest member of the club, congratulations Penny!
- The final “Attitude of Gratitude” Flower Fundraiser flyer will be sent out to members. Orders due November 1 with pickup on November 23 (see attached)
- The club discussed when and where we might begin meeting in person again. New ownership at the Mead has indicated there would be additional meeting room charges if we continued to meet there so alternatives are being investigated including Bulls Eye, Ridges, Mid-State, Knights of Columbus, Lion’s Club, Nepco Park Shelter, etc.
- WFHR is celebrating 80 years of servicing the community and will hold an on-air open house November 11 and 12.
- Angel provided an update on the Rapids Together initiative. It is reported that there are several seriously interested parties but it is still in the non-disclosure period so details are not available. Progress continues with the Co-op scenario. A grant has been submitted to pursue alternative uses for the site. They are having a virtual meeting with Tammy Baldwin to update her and solicit her continued support.
- Our youth Rotars shared how their education was going with the COVID adjustments. In-person instruction was described as more intense since they have limited face-to-face time.
