Rotary News

- We had 21 people on the Zoom meeting,
- We welcomed our first Youth Rotar of the new school year, Rebecca Black from Nekoosa High School. She is a member of Linkcrew, National Honor Society, FBLA, band as well as active in her church. She plans on pursuing a career in accounting and environmental science.
- Our mini-golf fundraiser is next Thursday, volunteers needed for several functions yet, <https://www.facebook.com/events/2518810925097003/>
- We will also be promoting the third annual “Attitude of Gratitude” flower sale in November.

Bill Pritchard, District 6250 Governor

Bill shared a number of observations with the club, as well as some moala.

- When choice is taken away, a lot of creativity occurs.
- In 1947, with the death of Paul Harris, his remembrance led to the formation of the Rotary International Foundation
- With the Supreme Court decision, Rotary welcomed its first women to the organization in 1987 (thanks in part to Ruth Bader Ginsburg)
- The new virtual environment has allowed those that could not or would not attend a club a new opportunity to join
- The new International president is asking all clubs to pursue a strategic plan, what are we going to change to address this new world now, why we exist, work on diversity seeking more women and younger members
- Oralee, assistant to the district governor is our link to Rotary resources
- The “After Hours” club that Bill attends in La Crosse the average age is 29
- Live Ben Franklin’s question; “What good shall I do today?”
- Our club’s “Yes” person award went to Tom Schneider, congrats Tom!
