Rotary News

- Attendance 17 including Paul Pechmann, the new manager and head coach for the Wisconsin Rapids Riverkings. He reported that they are short of 3 billets for the players if anyone would be willing to provide lodging for a player.
- Thanks to everyone that helped with the Highway cleanup. The areas were relatively clean thanks to recent mowing.
- We need to keep seeking participants and sponsors for the August 30th Mini-Golf fundraiser. You can sign-up on-line.

Avenues of Service

Club/Membership

We suggested a regular social event every other month, the third Thursday of the month at Mr. B’s Tap House. Tentative Christmas party on Thursday, Dec. 1
This committee will put together a raffle basket with items that represent the work of Rotary including Polio, K-9s, projects, scholarships, and international support.

Vocational

They are preparing for invitations for the next year of youth Rotars. Their basket will include Packer and Badger items.

Community Service

We are scheduled to help with the Neighborhood Table in September. Their raffle basket will be a fun community pizza certificate basket.

International

Discussed the potential for supporting an exchange student sharing the responsibility with the noon club.
Fundraiser raffle basket theme unknown.
