Rotary News

- We had 23 in attendance in person including our two new November Youth Rotars. Raya Broeren, LHS, is accepted to the University of Minnesota and is seeking a pathway to medical school. Kailer Lyp, JEHS, is accepted to Illinois State University, welcome ladies!
- We somewhat welcomed back Tim Krueger who apologized for missing the highway cleanup event 😊
- We also welcomed Jim Arnold our speaker along with three Riverkings players
- December 2 is our annual Christmas Party at the Alexander House
- November Kwik-Trip order will receive a 10% discount
- Larry won the Packer Pool and gave his point to Every Rotarian Every Year with an extra point for $10

Jim Arnold – South Wood County Recreation Center Manager

Jim is a 1994 graduate from AHS, graduated from UWSP in 1998 and as a part-time job ran the Zamboni at the rec center and was hooked. He is currently the only paid staff at the center, the rest are volunteers. The rink has ice 10 months of the year. There just wasn't enough activity in May and June to warrant keeping the ice in. The center just went through a $400,000 HVAC upgrade to the chiller for making the ice. The rink also hosts the Wisconsin Rapids Figure Skating Club, Curling, Roller Derby, and Flyball (dogs chasing tennis balls). Hockey is also played at the center 😊. The LHS team plays there as well at the Wisconsin Rapids Riverkings, a Tier 3 USPHL hockey league. Three members shared their experiences coming to our community, they spoke very highly of our community and the welcoming atmosphere (see the three profiles).
