Andrea Jensen "Warm the Heart", Tri-City Services

Andrea is president of Tri-City Services and participates in the "Warm the Heart" program that provides a new free furnace to a family in need. There is an application form on their website:

<https://www.tricityrefrigeration.com/warm-the-hearts>

Their first recipient, Melissa, has said; "Receiving the Furnace was a great blessing and kept us warm all winter at a much lower cost.

The recipient is selected by a committee that looks at their needs, current equipment, family situation, etc.

Due to need two families will be selected this year. The deadline for entries is November 23, 2022. If you know anyone that would benefit from this program please encourage them to apply.

See the flyer attached.

Warm the Hearts 4 of the Wisconsin Rapids Area

Warm the Hearts of the Wis. Rapids Area is back again!

Tri-City Services is searching for someone deserving of a new furnace in our Wisconsin Rapids Area!

Help us bring a little warmth to a family in need by nominating them, or applying yourself. Think of that person who is deserving and in need of a reliable, efficient furnace with a full warranty to give them peace of mind and comfort this winter, and many winters to come.

The Warm the Hearts the committee will select the recipient and Tri-City will install a new, safe and efficient furnace for them, free of charge.

Because of wonderful customers like you, we're able to pool the generosity of our vendors, our employees and other big hearted community members into this amazing gift to help our neighbors in need.

Help us warm their hearts and their home!
